

Kevin Wen

European President, D-Link (Europe) Ltd

Kevin Wen joined D-Link in 1997 as General Manager to build the company's operations in the South Pacific Market. In 2003 Wen re-located to London to take on overall responsibility for D-Link Europe.

Prior to joining D-Link, Wen was General Manager for Accton, South Pacific. During his appointment, Wen developed the company to become one of the top three networking brands in the South Pacific region.

Earlier, Wen held the position of Senior Manager for the Digital Equipment Corporation, Taiwan Ltd. Whilst responsible for the operational management of Greater China, Wen launched the external sales channels for the company and during his three year appointment received the outstanding regional contributor award each consecutive year.

Previously, Wen held senior channel management positions at Cisco Systems Asia as well as product management positions at Tech Pacific Australia Pty Ltd.

Wen holds a Master of Science in Computer and Communication from Chin Hua University of Taiwan.

